BUT SOMETHING should be done
FOR THE poor guys
WHO HAVE to limp around
WITH JUST enough hair
ON THEIR heads.
TO MAKE a good eye-brow.
ESPECIALLY DURING
THIS COLD weather.
AND THIS morning.
WHEN I came down to work
I WAS walking
BEHIND JACK GRANT
AND HE passed a lady.
AND TIPPED his hat.
AND IN a second or two
WE PASSED another one.
AN HE tipped his hat again.
AND A FEW feet further along
UP COMES another one.
AND OFF comes Jack's hat again.
AND THAT'S the way.
THINGS KEPT going.
TILL WE got to Southworth's store.

AND JACK'S hat
WAS IN the air longer
THAN IT was on his head.
AND JUST before
HE WENT into the store
HE TOOK off his hat once more.
AND RUBBED his head
WITH HIS glove.
AND I noticed
IT WAS beginning
TO TURN kind of blue.
AND AS I said before
SOMETHING OUGHT to be done
DURING THIS cold weather.

The vice of the Postal Cable and Telegraph company versus the South-west Nevada T. and T. company, which has occupied the attention of the Federal court for almost two weeks, will perhaps go to the jury sometime today.
The trial is for the purpose of determining damages awarded the plaintiff in a former trial and which were deemed to be the claim that they were excessive.

LOW BIRTH RATE
EXCITES TURKS

(Correspondence Associated Press)

CONSTANTINOPLE, March 18.—The Sultan, Mohammed VI, has issued an imperial decree proclaiming May 1 as "marriage day" throughout Turkey in an effort to promote the weddings and to arrest the decline in the birthrate. This action was taken on the request of Hazem Bey, Minister of Interior, who ascribes the decreased number of births in Turkey to the frivolity of young women.

In the Sultan's decree, all engaged persons who have been unable to marry earlier are urged to do so on May 1. As an inducement, no charges are to be made for marriages performed on that day, guests at weddings are to make no gifts, the first children of those who wed on May 1 are to receive the names of the children of the Sultan and to receive the gift of a bracelet from the governor of the province in which the child is born.

The Sultan's son is named d'Erto-ghoul and his daughters are Roukie and d'Ulvis.

The edict is especially directed to the province of Broussa, in Anatolia, which attracted much unfavorable comment in the Mohammedan press because of its greatly reduced birthrate and the tendency of its population to violate the Moslem prohibition of the use of intoxicating beverages. Government officials allege that people of Anatolian villages, men and women alike, indulge what they call "burning nights" of music and feasting.

Indulgence in modern dancing has aroused the protest of a member of the Chamber of Deputies from Anatolia who has introduced a bill authorizing officials to prevent women from participating in the dances and capers of the ball room.

BAD FOOD SOLD
VIENNA PEOPLE

VIENNA, March 22.—People of this city are beginning to find out what they have been eating in various imitation foods. Experts who have investigated the composition of certain food stuffs now on sale have reported that egg substitutes are made largely of flour, that "liver sausages," beloved by the Viennese, are based on wheat dissolved and seasoned and that some cheese is a preparation of potatoes milled to get the proper taste. Tinned horsemeat is the latest "delicacy" to appear in the shops.

NO IMITATION
LEATHER GOODS

(Correspondence Associated Press)

STOCKHOLM, March 23.—Sale of 70,000 pairs of American shoes was stopped here the other day because they had been found to contain horn fibre in the heel and toe. Use of substitutes for leather in shoes is forbidden by the Swedish law.

Public indignation has been expressed over the stopping of the sale owing to the alleged exorbitant prices demanded by domestic manufacturers.

The selling firm has appealed to the government to permit the shoes to be sold.

SAVING TIME
ON WEST COAST

(Associated Press)

SAN FRANCISCO, April 10.—Revision of the mail routes to Central America so that mail from the Pacific coast may go down the west coast or else follow the most direct lines on the east coast is being sought by trade development bodies of San Francisco. At present the only method of utilizing the speediest route is to specify the name of the ship on which the letter is desired to travel. Otherwise mail goes through New Orleans and may go as far as Panama and then back to Nicaragua, instead of entering the later republic by a shorter and more direct line according to those interested in the move.

The experience of one San Francisco business man, who had to send a package from Montevideo, Uruguay to Panama via France, instead of directly up the west coast of South America via Valparaiso, is cited. This was merely because of an old postal agreement, and resulted in the package being delivered just a year later, because French steamship lines to Panama had been withdrawn during the war.

Fighting Hunger

Hunger is never more than a few days away from the American people.

The coal strike showed us what a narrow margin the country goes on, even in a non-perishable necessity which can be stored.

Swift & Company is engaged in the business of fighting hunger.

From coast to coast, from the Great Lakes to the Gulf, the lines of defense are drawn—packing plants at strategic points; branch houses in four hundred towns and cities; hundreds of car routes; thousands of refrigerator cars; tens of thousands of loyal men and women expert in their work.

Day by day, hour by hour ceaselessly, this fight, your fight, goes on. Yet so smoothly, surely and victoriously that you, unaware how close hunger always is, are as certain each night of tomorrow's meat as you are of tomorrow's sun.

And so economically is this done that the cost to you for this service is less than three cents a pound of meat sold. The profit shared in by more than 30,000 shareholders whose money makes the victory possible is only a fraction of a cent a pound on all products.

If hunger did not make it necessary for us to fight this fight in the best possible way for all concerned, the competition of hundreds of other packers, large and small, would compel us.
